Point Blank

By Howard Ikebuchi

There isn't much that can be said about Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, that is, not much else that he has not already said himself.

This man, who gives one the uncanny impression that he is some sort of a Guardian of the Right, has told the Canadian public over and over that he is proud to be a freedom loving Canadian. It almost seems plausible that this pride has much to do with his Government's policies, some of which have already been legislated into law or otherwise expressed through the many agencies of government bureaucracy.

It could then be said that Mr. Diefenbaker's pride in his Canadian heritage is responsible for that which prompted his Government to legislate a Canadian Bill of Rights; for that which moved him to vigorously admonish the Aparthied policy of the present South African Government; for that which pushed his Government to revise the Immigration Act. Further, his pride may have been the influencing force for Canada's open door policy to several hundred tubercular refugees and their families, and to the one hundred refugee families from Hong Kong. It was also the dictate of his Government which put a stop to RCMP investigations of Chinese residents in connection with the much publicized illegal entry of 2,000 and more Chinese.

A quick glance at these items will indicate some humanitarian purpose behind each government move. Minority ethnic groups, (always lobbying for their own particular interests,) may mistakenly identify these items as evidence of a tolerant, understanding government. A detailed analysis, however, of each of the above items will reveal a political motive specially designed to give Mr. Diefenbaker a place in the public mind as a Protector of Human Rights, a Canadian, in fact, towards whom all can look up to with some pride.

Recent events, however, have failed to bring Mr. Diefenbaker's image to the platform on the pole of virtue. Instead, they have shown that Mr. Diefenbaker is not at all reluctant to fabricate "facts" and present them as the utterable truth to the public.

He has been caught at this sort of political expediency now for the second time in recent months. The first time was over the "Truth" about Canada's economy; the second, over the "Truth" about Canada's Defence Policy.

This tendency to manufacture "facts" about, and in, areas of wide consequences as Canadian economy and defence is a trick for which the Prime Minister shows great talent. This makes one wonder whether the P. M. has not indulged in his trick in other areas as well—say, for instance, about his pride in his Canadian heritage?

It is hoped, however, that he does not get another chance to try his trick again.

The type of person that aggravate my temperment is one that asks me of my nationality. I am usually facetious with such persons and the conversation usually goes like this:

"What's your nationality?"

"Canadian."

"I know that. . ."

"Then why do you ask?"

"Oh, you know what I mean . . . what's your race?"

"Mongoloid."

"What nationality is your mother, then?"

"Canadian."

Paper Warns of Possible Earthquake Disaster in Tokyo

TOKYO.—The world's largest metropolis—Tokyo—is prime for another earthquake disaster, the Asahi daily newspaper gloomily predicted recently.

It said that lower portions of Tokyo are gradually sinking, and that as they do, gas mains and water pipes are broken in the process.

Asahi warned that an earthquake, by fracturing both water and gas lines, could create a disastrous fire and leave the city with no water to fight it.

The paper's fears were typical of the cassanora cries heard often in a city that has undergone near-total destruction twice in modern times.

Tokyo was almost wiped out in a disastrous earthquake and fire in 1923. Allied bombing planes did the job again in 1945.

Commenting on a fire blamed on a broken gas pipe which broke out in Tokyo's low lying Koto district a few days ago, Asahi said:

"This accident exposes the dangerous condition of this ailing giant of a city. In truth, we are sitting on top of a volcano."

The Koto explosion killed six people and burned down houses with a total of 1,400 square yards of floor space.

"The whole area of Koto ward is suffering from a severe sinking of the ground," Asahi said. "The sinking is uneven, and in some places gas mains are cracked by the subsidence. The leaking gas spreads through sewer pipes and seeps into houses through the floor boards. Sometimes the sewers even catch fire because people throw lighted cigarette butts into them."

Asahi claimed that the smell of gas has been noticeable in the stricken area for the last year.

"This fire should be taken as an example of what could happen in a big earthquake and fire. The slow, steady sinking of the ground cracks the steel pipes. If there were a violent earthquake wouldn't every pipe be broken?" the paper asked.

"Flames would swoop into many more places, and fires would break out everywhere.

"Underground water mains would crack in a big earthquake and water supplies would be cut off. Most of Tokyo's rivers and moats have been filled in leaving no reservoirs. The traffic congestion would prevent fire engines from moving about.

"With all these dangerous factors, how could the city authorities cope with a major emergency?" Asahi inquired.

JCCA Committee Start Plans For Membership Campaign

TORONTO.—Preparation for the Toronto JCCA's membership drive scheduled to take place during the coming spring and early summer are now being carried out by the Ways and Means Committee.

Members of this committee and other hard working executive members have set aside "work nights" at the JCCA headquarters each Monday evening. For the past several weeks they have been making a list of Japanese Canadians in the Toronto area from the voter's lists. They still have one constituency to work on.

The February work nights have been set for Monday, Feb. 11, 18, and 25th, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at 415 Spadina Ave. The committee is looking for typists who can spare the time to assist them in this tedious, but worthy project. Any young ladies willing to assist the JCCA are more than welcome.

The monthly executive meeting of the Toronto chapter, held on Feb. 6th, heard reports on the various activities past and future, and also details of the coming General meeting—at the Toronto Buddhist Church on Feb. 16 at 8:00 p.m.—and the Inaugural Banquet to be held at Scott's Restaurant.

The General Meeting will consist of a summary of the year's activities, the treasurer's report and the Isseibu-division's report, as well as the election of officers for the coming year.

Plans are underway to have a well-known member of the Japanese community as a guest speaker. Also on the agenda will be the showing of two recent films, one of which is entitled, "Scenes of Modern Japan." Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

The present executive expressed hopes that members of the as Japanese Canadian community of Toronto will take advantage of this opportunity to meet their JCCA executives and to participate in the election of their officers. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Fishing Boat Taken By Red Patrol Boat

TOKYO.—A Japanese fishing boat with a 15-man crew apparently has been seized by a Russion patrol ship in the Northwest Pacific for alleged violation of Soviet territorial waters, the Maritime Safety Board reported. The last message from the 84-ton No. 11 Chosei Maru, at about noon Saturday, said a Russian patrol boat had ordered her to stop, the board said.

Colored Snow Falls On Western Japan

TOKYO.—Red snow from Red China fell in western Japan recently.

Colored snow, red, yellow and brown was reported in four different Japanese provinces in the country's blizzard zone.

Officials of the government's meterological agency said there was nothing to be alarmed about. They explained that strong winds from Siberia have picked up yellowish Chinese soil and brought it to Japan with the storm.

Some of the Chinese earth mixes with the snow, resulting in the polychromatic snowfall.

The agency spokesman said there are several recorded cases of colored snowfalls in ancient Japanese records, but that the last big one took place in 1811.

Reds Warn Japan About U.S. Fleets In Port

MOSCOW. — Russia warned Japan this week against allowing foreign troops to be stationed on its soil or permiting a foreign atomic fleet to enter its ports.

It said U.S. submarines entering Japanese ports would pave the way into Japan for U.S. nuclear weapons.

The warning was contained in a Soviet note handed to Japanese Foreign Minister Masayoshi Ohira by Ambassador Vladimir Vinogradov.

It said that such Japanese involvement would face the Soviet Union with the need to take account of military preparations being conducted in the immediate proximity of its frontiers in implementing its defensive measures in the Far East.

"Things are leading up to the transformation of parts of Japan into U.S. armed forces strongpoints," the note said.

Foreign Minister Ohira, rejecting the note, said the United States would send only Nautilus-type submarines, for the scheduled visit of the 7th Fleet to Japan. These vessels did not carry nuclear weapons.

Japanese Firm Gives Employees Love Allowances

INA, Japan.—To travel allowances, food allowances and other amenities contrived to make life easier, something new has been added: the love allowance.

To the 130 members of the Kyemeisha Musical Instrument Co. in Ina, Japan, it holds promise of being the most rewarding allowance of all.

The system, as developed by Muniyuki Kitahara, the company's 31-year-old president, works like this:

A male and female worker are attracted to each other and want to go steady. They so inform Kitahara, who officially announces them to be in love. Then, for the duration of their courtship each receives a "love allowance" of 500 yen ($1.38) a month.

So far one couple has been united in wedlock following this procedure and four couples are engaged. "We've had no breakups as yet, but even if an engaged couple decide to call it off, there's no penalty," said Kitahara.

"You see," he explained, "the whole idea is to promote productive efficiency and harmony—and it certainly does."

Rev. Tada Guest Speaker At Mtl. Bddhist Church

MONTREAL.—Montreal Buddhist Church marked the February Shotsuki Hoyo Service on Feb. 3rd by welcoming Rev. K. Tada, on tour of Eastern Canada Buddhist Churches and a farewell visit to Montreal after a 5 year absence in Chicago, who will be transferred to Seattle in the very near future.

Rev. Tada officiated at the service with the assistance of Hokkyoshi Yasui and in spite of the extreme cold weather, "In Memorium" families, their friends and interested members who had congregated, were much impressed by his sermon titled: "Enlightened Attitudes in Religious Self-Analysis."

After the service, a welcome supper was attended by members of the executive where interesting U.S. and Canada counter-talk ensued before "good-byes" were said.

The Montreal Buddhist Church wishes to thank Rev. Tada for his sincere interest, his kind return farewell visit, and wish him every good health, good fortune and good success in his future endeavours.

Japanese Train 107 Hours Late; Passengers Receive Fare Refund

TOKYO.—Japan's punctuality-proud railwaymen bowed deep in embarrassed apology recently—the crack express from Niigata was 106 hours 20 minutes late because of snow-blocked tracks.

This was believed to be a post-war record. The 400-mile trip usually takes six hours.

The hissing as the snow-caped train crept into Tokyo's Ueno station was not steam—the locomotive is electric. It was the sharp intake of breath through the teeth—registering embarrassment—by railroad officials lined up along the platform to welcome the train's 100 chilblained passengers as they stamped off the train.

A more concrete, if modest, form of apology was the refund due the passengers: the 1,600 yen ($4.82).

So proud are the Japan National Railway of their customary punctuality that a passenger on a cross-country express gets a full refund if his train is more than two hours late.

This seldom happens. Trains usually aren't even two minutes late. Japan's trainmen are fond of saying, If your train is one minute late, your on the wrong train."

One example of this passion for punctuality was the train that chuffed into Hiroshima the day the Bomb fell. The explosion shook the station just as the train pulled in, but it pulled out on schedule a few minutes later in a cloud of smoke and dust.

The Niigata express was stopped by heavy, clogging snow that fell hour after hour, day after day, that drifted nine feet deep over the roadbed, that engulfed thousands of snow shovelers and derailed a snowplough.

Five hundreds passengers were aboard when the train bravely pulled out of Niigata in the middle of a blizard at 4:05 p.m. last Wednesday. It was due in Tokyo at 10:08 p.m. that night, but it was stopped in its tracks after only 33 miles.

In the horrowing five nights that followed, passengers slept in the freezing train cars, got sick from charcoal fumes in the nearest station or doubled up in the few hotel rooms available.

Four out of five made their way back to Niigata and environs. Those who stuck it out remarked, on emerging in Tokyo, "It seems like a dream, now that it is all over."

Japan Air Lines Has Large Selection of Spring Tours

TORONTO. — (Special to NC) —People interested in special aspects of Japanese life and culture will find there are advantages to visiting Japan this spring; advise George Nishidera, Japan Air Lines' representative in Toronto.

Mr. Nishidera points out there is an especially large selection of Japan tours this spring for those interested in more than sight-seeing and entertainment.

"Of course JAL has many sightseeing tours, too," he commented, "in every price range." Of the special-interest tours, the largest number is for garden and flower enthusiasts.

An around-the-world garden study tour leaves March 24, under the leadership of Thomas H. Everett, assistant director of the New York Botanical Garden. Two orient garden tours leave March 28 and April 5.

Women interested in ikebana can join the Ikebana International tour, leaving April 21. The Tour includes 52 hours of instruction at the Ikenobo, Sogetsu, Ohara and Saka schools The tour is open to beginners, intermediate students, advanced students and teachers.

Photographers can choose among three tours, leaving April 12, April 24 and October 4. Photo tours are led by qualified experts. They are designed to include the most scenic attractions.

追　跡

やがて、藤馬が入つて行つたのは、松枝町の、とある角屋敷の一角、ケヤキの大樹が、門の上をおおつた邸宅であつた。

立派な邸宅であつた。紋をうつた三間梁の長屋、白鉄の入つた塗塀、鉄鋲をはめこんだ門扉。

しかも、夜目にも、むざんに荒れはてて、長年月空屋敷であることは、視線をとめたどの個所からでもわかつた。

この屋敷こそ、四年前、雪姫が住んでいた須貝兼兵衛の拝領屋敷だつたのである。

三次は、藤馬が、戸もない潜門から、中へ入るのを見とどけておいて、そのまま、すたすたと行き過ぎつつ、

――これア、化物の出そうな空屋敷じやねえか。いよいよ面白くなつて来やがつたぜ。

と、胸のうちでつぶやいた。

長い土塀を、つと、まがりかけて、三次は、ひよいと、ふりかえつた。

「あれ?」

自分と同じく、藤馬をつけていた頭巾の武士の姿は忽然として消えていた。

「引返しやがつたかな?おかしいな?」

たしかに、この通りに入るまでは、三次は、背後の気配を、ちやんとかぎつけていたのである。

三次は、小首をかしげて、しばらく、そこに、つつ立つたなりだつた。

孤剣の部屋

この屋敷内の一室に、雪は、両手を縛られ柱につながれ、坐つていた。

そこは、四年前に、雪が起居した部屋であつた。

先夜、不意に、わが家に侵入した数名の無頼風の男たちに、猿ぐつわをかまされ、縛りあげられ、かつぎだされると駕籠におしこめられ、つれて来られたのがこの屋敷であつたとは――

それと気づいて、雪が、恐怖の中にも自分の運命の数奇を暗然とみつめる孤独感に陥つたのは、当然であつた。

そして、雪は、指揮をとつた覆面の武士が、宗戸兵馬の弟藤馬と名乗り、

「あんたをここへしよつぴいて来て、とじこめて置くのは、おれが兄者の仇を討つために、梅津を呼び寄せるオトリにする為なんだ」

と、言いはなつのをきいた時、この四年間の平和なくらしが、泡沫のはかなさであつたように思われた。

決して、長門との静かな営みが泡まつのはかなさではないことを、自分に言いきかせたのは、一人にとりのこされて、心がしずまつてからであつた。

――わたくしは、いまは孤独ではない。梅津長門の妻なのだ。

かつて、雪は、将軍家齊の落胤として、この屋敷にあつた日は、身を切られるような堪えがたい孤独のきびしさから心を守るためにどんな疑事にもおそれぬ冷たさを持していた。

だが、いまは、梅津長門の妻であるという自覚によつて、この激変の事態に堪える強さを持たなければならない、とさとつたのである。

メデケアの促進運動

オ州勞連が賛成署名を集む

オンタリオ州勞働連盟(州内の各勞働組合連合体)ではメディケーア(醫療保險)實施促進の運動をはじめ、それに賛成する人々のサインを集めている。勞働連盟の主張するメディケーアは費用はそれを支拂い得る能力に從って分擔し、貧富の區別なくそれを享受できるようにする――最高標準の醫療ということを目標にしていて、その醫療保險計畫の基本は次の六項から成るべきであるとしている。

(一)貧富の區別なく各人がこの保險でカバーされねばならぬ。

(二)各人はそれぞれの能力に應じて費用を分擔する

(三)すべての人に最高標準の醫療を與える。

(四)醫療保險は、勞働者農者、その他消費者代表およびドクターと政府を含む責任あるメディカル・サービス・コミッション(醫療保險委員)によって運營される。

(五)醫療に關する決定は政府が干渉せずにドクターの方でする。

(六)この保險には現存の病院保險のほかに、一般的なもの及び專門的なもの双方の醫療を含むものとする

勞働連盟が、こうしたメディケーアをオンタリオ州にも設けなければならないと主張する理由は

△國民の健康は、よき教育と同樣に國家の福利にとって重要事であってそれは最もよいものを制束なしに與えなければならぬ△然るに醫療は人々が金を持っている程度に從って、収入の多い者はよき醫療を得られるというやり方で與えられているのが普通である△組織勞働者は支拂能力の如何に拘らず有らゆる人々は得られる限りの最良の醫療を受けるべきだと信ずる△組織勞働者はまた、醫療は政府のプランを通してのみ費用を公平に分擔してョリ良き醫療を一般に與えることが出來ると信じている△現在のところでは病氣予防や集團的醫療又は復職への更新等のことは極くわずかしか行われていないが、それらも政府のプランの一部とされるべきである△州内全体をふくむ政府案によってのみ全ての人々を入れた總合的な醫療施設は出來るのである。等々であると述べているが、醫療保險に關心を持つものは挙ってこの勞働連盟の運動を支持すべきである。

セーフ・ウエイの日本進出

(一)

△一般の小賣り商が集まって構成する全国小賣商團体連盟は二月七日、日比谷公會堂で『外國スーパー進出反對全國小賣商總決起大會』を開いた。これはここ數年來、販賣革命の波にのって私鐵、百貨店など大資本を背景とするスーパーマーケットが小賣り部門に相ついで進出、小賣り商の經營に脅威を與えてきた。このため全日商連など小賣り團体はこれに對する進出反對運動を續けてきた。ところがことしにはいり、アメリカ第二のスーパー會社であるセーフ・ウエイの日本進出が明らかにされたことから、小賣り商業界は大ショックを受けた。こうなると國内大資本のスーパー阻止どころでなく、まずは外国スーパーの日本進出を水ぎわで阻止しなければ小賣り商死活の問題だとして、この全国大會を開くことになったわけである。大會には全日商連非加盟の日本薬業組合、東京酒販組合なども參加、全国から四、五千人の代表が集まって反對氣勢をあげた。そこで、スーパーマーケットに對する小賣り商側の言い分を中心に外國資本スーパー進出がもたらした波紋と方向をさぐってみた。

「第一陣」のセーフ・ウエイ

△外国のスーパーストア進出の恐怖はたんにセーフ・ウエイだけでなく、これを第一陣として成算の見通しがつけば、第二陣、第三陣が上陸してくるのではないかということさえ考えられるからだという。この外国スーパーに對するには日本の小賣り部門は一般小賣り商だけでなく、既設のスーパー店も、専門店も、大型化に体質を改善して立ち向かうよりほかはない。それにはまだ、小賣り企業の大型化にたえられるだけの生産部門、流通部門、消費部門の土壌ができていないというのが日本の現状のようだ。

△このため日本でも四、五年前からスーパー店が現われ、一昨年あたりからは小賣り業界にスーパー旋風がまきおこった。現在セルフサービスをたてまえとするスーパーマーケットと、小型のセルフサービス店は全国で約二千六百店ともいわれ、このうち年間賣り上げ一億圓以上のスーパー店は四百店ぐらいある。賣り上げの面でもその半數は年間一億圓台だが、十億圓以上のものも十數店あり、一應の成功をおさめているところから、目下スーパー店の開設はどんどん新設、亂立の懸念さえ與えている。またアメリカのスーパーマーケットは食料品中心の販賣だが、日本のそれは、むしろ衣料品を中心にしたものが多く、綜合商品のかたちでのびている。その經營主体は私鐵、百貨店、食品水産業、問屋といった大資本を背景にしており、地場的には、大資本のスーパーが進出したため、既設の小型スーパーはたちまち倒産のうきめをみたという例も少なくない。

△このようなスーパー業界のようらん時代である現在日本全國の百貨店がたばになってもその賣り上げの約半分、セーフ・ウエイのようなアメリカのスーパー會社が日本に進出するというのだから、小賣り業界が、大さわぎするのもむりはない。ただ外国スーパーは日本商社と提携、日本法人を設立して上陸する。この場合法的規制はまったくないだから小賣り商店の阻止大會も、その前に小賣り商の死活問題ということを看板に反對運動を盛り上げ、政府に行政指導でのチェックをさせることがねらいといえよう。

ケンソー

△ディフェンベーカー内閣は野黨の思惑通り、遂にたおれた。イノチのツナと頼みにした社信黨が最後のドタンバになってころりと態度を變え、自由黨と新民主黨が同意できるような不信任案(修正案)を出して政府を倒してしまった。

△デ首相は火曜夜の議會で七十分間にわたって雄辯をふるい、もうしばらくの間政府に信任を與えてほしいと訴え、とくに社信黨に强くアピールして、社信黨が要求する條件は速かに實施する、それがすめば總選擧を行なうから、と約束したが遂に無駄に終わった。

△保守党系の有力朝刊紙『グローブ・アンド・メール』は六日のフロント・ページに社説をかかげ、オタワの保守政府が倒潰したのはデ首相の不決斷にあると鋭く難詰、保守党はディフェンベーカーを黨主から追い出さないかぎり、同黨は到底有力政黨にはなり得ないだろうと警告しているのは注目される。

△昨年の六月に選擧があったばかりなのに、一年もしないうち、再び四月八日に選擧が行なわれることになったが、自由黨は得たりとばかり大喜び。こんどは議席百七十五をかち得て政權をとりもどすと鼻息はすこぶる荒い。

醉っぱらい

◇私たちは嬉しいにつけ悲しいにつけその量はともかく、お酒を飲んで人生を樂しんでいます。酒はほどよく飲んでいる人は百藥の長といわれますが、シタタカに醉いつぶれた時は惡魔の水などといわれて世間の人たちの顔をしかめさせます

◇私たちの腦ずいには、勝手氣ままなことをしないように、いろいろなことをおさえている働きがありますお酒を飲むと、その中に含まれているエチル・アルコールによって、輕くマスイにかかったように、その働きがにぶりますので、ちょうど精神が興奮した時と同じようになって、愉快な氣持になり、体を活潑に動かし、大聲で歌ったり踊りまわったりするようになるのです。

◇ところが、このお酒も量をこすと、マスイ藥と同じく、だんだん体がマヒしてきて、最後には何がなんだかわからなくなってしまいます。

◇醉っぱらって体がマヒしていく順序は、まず口や目がダメになり、最後に足や手という順序です。だからろれつがまわらない醉っぱらいは、高度の判斷力とか感受性はダメですが、方向感覺のような原始的感覺は最後まで殘るので、通いなれた家路は無事にたどれるわけです。從って意識不明といっても、たいていは二三才の幼兒なみの頭の働きは殘っています。

オタワ議會解散 四月八日に選擧
＝二回の不信任案に敗れて＝

【オタワ發】ディフェンベーカー内閣は五日夜遂に崩壊した。三野黨は一致して二回にわたつて政府不信任動議を一四二票對一〇九票でかち得た結果、ディフェンベーカー首相は六日午後、第二十五回議會の解散を宣し、來る四月八日を投票日と發表した。昨年六月、過半數に達しない少數第一黨として政權を保留したディフェンベーカー内閣は七ヵ月目に三野黨の一致攻撃の前にもろくも瓦解、總選擧に追い込まれてしまつた。解散前の各分野の勢力は次の通り△進歩保守黨一一三△自由黨九九△社會信用黨三〇△新民主黨一九△空席四、合計二六五。

△四政黨は七日から早くも選擧對策にのり出し、自由黨は選擧本部をオタワにおいて、その機關の活動準備をととのえており、『無爲無能の保守黨』をスローガンにして戰うもようである。これに對して保守黨は『政權慾に眼がくらんだ自由党の妨害主義と下等なやり方』で答えることになろう。

保守議員の策謀は不發に終る

△黨略上、いい時機までは總選擧に出るべきでないとするディフェンベーカー首相の"時を稼ぐ"やり方と核兵器に對するあいまいな態度で、進歩保守黨議員内に"首相追い出し"の策謀が行われていると風説がしきりに流布されており、消息筋では事實としているが、解散後議事堂内で行われた同黨議員會議は、デ首相に絶對の信頼をおくという忠誠誓言が各々からなされたといわれ、『次期首相はもちろんディフェンベーカー氏である』と保守黨議員の意氣軒昂である。

"反米運動"
米側で憂慮

【ワシントン發】ディフェンベーカー内閣が敗れたニュースは米各紙が大々的に報道したが、米外交界では、來るべき選擧に『反米運動』がかもし出されるのではないかと憂慮している。一方、ある筋では『米加兩國は昔からの友邦國であるから、あつさり主張し合うことは當座はまずい氣持ちを抱くだろうが、將來はすつきりした心持ちとなろう』と核武裝問題における米國の出方を辯護している。しかし他方、隣家の家庭騒動に口をいれるのは、愚の骨頂だと評している新聞もあり、ただ、カナダ總選擧が白熱化してきて、この米國の干渉がとりあげられて『反米』とならねばよいがという心配が米政界に抱かれている。

漁業交渉 日本に不利か

【東京時事通信】外務省は五日、カナダのディフェンベーカー内閣が不信任されたことについて次のようにみている。

一、ディフェンベーカー首相は議會を解散したが、總選擧が行なわれても特定の政黨が絶對多數を占め安定政權が生まれる可能性は少ない。したがつて總選擧後も政局不安が續くものとみられる。

一、政局不安からカナダ政府は現在東京で行なわれている日米加漁業交渉で同國漁業者の要望を尊重せざるを得なくなり、日本に對して強い態度に出る事が予想される。またカナダ政局の不安が續けば、近く日米加ソ連オツトセイ條約改定交渉で日本が希望している同條約の根本的改正がむずかしくなると予想される。

十六才娘との交際で終身刑者が監獄戻り

△一九五二年、カナダの九銀行から十一万五千弗の現金をホールドアップして『公敵ナンバー・ワン』の異稱がつけられたエドウイン・アロンゾ・ボイド（四八）は終身刑でオ州キングストン監獄に服役中、模範囚として入獄十年で昨年假出獄を許されてトロントで生活中だったが、その後假釋放規則を度々破り、當局者の注意を無視したため、今週街上で捕われて、身柄は再び監獄に送られ一生を獄中ですごすことになった。

△ボイドの反則の一つは十六才の女性との交際である。その女性は"私のためにボイドが監獄に逆戻りした"と彼との交際のいきさつの告白記をト市新聞に送つたのが發表されている。それによると更生を心がけたボイドは職業學校に入り、勉學中にこの十六才娘と知り合つたが、彼は彼女の勉強をたすけ、一女性として待遇してくれた。ボイドは決して惡い人物ではないと友情以上の心情をあらわしている。

△一方、當局もボイドが出獄後、世人の冷たい目と家庭的（ボイド夫人と離婚）なトラブルで社會に住むのに落膽し、この娘との友情を唯一の希望にしていたが、やがては彼女に迷惑がかかることを考え、故意的に反則をくり返して監獄戻りを計畫したのではないかとみている。

國府の徐大使 カナダを非難

【モントリオール發】臺灣國民政府の新任駐加徐淑希大使はニューヨークから今週當市に飛來、オタワに向う途上『カナダは中共と貿易していることは壓政者を支持していることである』と第一撃を放ち、カナダの小麥は貧民の手に渡らず、中共の上層部が獨占しているのであるといつている。

オ州販賣税の無税額引上る

オ州のアラン藏相は一九六三—六四年の州政府予算案を七日提出したが、予算は十二億五百九十万弗で、一般市民に直接的にひびくものはキャンデー、ソフト・ドリンクなどのセールス・タキスの緩和である。すなわち合計二十一仙以下の買物にはセールス・タキスは免除されることになり、現行の十七仙までは無税のが二十一仙まで引上げられたわけ。

"日本は米軍基地"
ソ連の抗議を大平外相一蹴

東京の新流行衣服が二日でカナダ店内に

◇カナダの織物および衣服業者は、次の物語りを聞けば、聲をはりあげて逃げまどうだろう——。極東はカナダの織物衣服業にとつては強力な競爭相手だが、こんどは東京や香港から、東洋の最新ファッションの仕上げ衣服がわずか四十八時間以内でカナダの商店にとどくという超スピード・サービスを編み出した。

◇すでに二日前に東京で仕上げられた衣服がカナダ婦人によつて着られている。これはカナダ航空機のジェット機内に長い掛け棒がつくられ、仕上げ衣服はプラスチック袋にいれたのがかけられて、五千哩を一飛び、商店にそのまま飾られるという仕組。荷造り、バイヤーのプレス賃がはぶけ、卸商や小賣商は品濟めの心配がないというので大受けだという。

日本漁船一隻 ソ連が捕獲

【東京發】十五人乘りの日本漁船「長生丸第十一號」（八十四トン）は去る土曜正午ごろ、海上保安廳に最後のメッセージを送り、ソ連パトロール船のために航行のストップを命じられ、乘船されると打電してきた。同漁船は北西太平洋上で就漁中、ソ連海域に侵入したものとみられている。

大阪驛前の交通違反者をパチリ

【大阪發】大阪驛付近の市街の六ヵ所に『交通信號を無視して道路を横切るものは寫眞で撮影してとらえる』と警告した、サインが掲げられている。そのサインのそばに警察がポラロイド・カメラを持つてソッチしている。大阪驛前は一日五十万人の人々が出入りするところで、ジェーウォーキング防止として、カメラによる反則者摘發を實施、十秒で違反者に寫眞をみせて罰則に付すというわけで成績良好とある。

Baseball Star At Home Playing In Japanese Loop

BROOKLINE, Mass. — Okay, Mickey Mantle, so you hit a flock of home runs last year. But when's the last time you got a gift box of seaweed?

Which may be a rather diverse way of getting into a story about a Japanese baseball player, at that.

Japanese baseball — which ranks just below being emperor as an occupation in the minds of Nipponese fans—features such stars as Koiyama, Nagashima, Muriyama, McManus.

No, that wasn't an Irish linotype operator sneaking in with the name McManus. One of the leading players in Japanese baseball is 26-year-old Jim McManue of Brookline, who got weary of bouncing around American minor leagues a year ago.

Very Happy

After one season as first baseman with one of Japan's top teams, the Tokyo Whales, McManus—or "Macu" as he's called by Japanese players—wouldn't trade his job for Ford Frick's.

"I just couldn't do anywhere near as well playing baseball in the United States," the 6-foot-3, 223-pound slugger said while preparing to return for spring training.

"Not financially or any other way. The reception in Japan has been almost unbelievable since we first arrived and found half my team waiting at the airport to greet us."

"Us" is Jim, his pretty wife, Diane, and their two-year-old son, Brian, nicknamed "B.J."

Provided with a six-room house, a fine salary and an interpreter, McManus went on to hit 14 home runs, drive in 62 runs and bat .278 while playing only half the 130-game schedule.

"I missed 60 games with a leg injury," said the refugee from the Detroit and Kansas City chains. "But I ended up about 10th in RBI."

Asked about the seaweed, Jim chuckled. "It's customary in Japan for a person to bring a present when visiting someone. This carries over to baseball, which is fantastically popular over there.

"So when a player had a good game or hits a home run or such, a fan—or even a writer—will bring a present when he talks to him. One day I was presented with a nice box full of seaweed. To the Japanese that's a delicacy."

Comparing baseball in the two nations, McManus said the Japanese brand would stack up "at least on a par" with a top minor league club.

"The overall strength and depth is greater in U.S. baseball," he said. "The Japanese would like very much to have playoffs between the two nations in what would really be a World Series. But they know they're not ready for that quite yet."

Better Pay

McManus stressed that Japan's better players would not be interested in coming to the United States to play major league baseball. Why?

"We just couldn't pay them enough in the United States to make it worth their while. Players in Japan are very well paid and they probably at least double their salaries by engaging in outside businesses. And most of them have good investment programs going."

Then he fired the clincher.

"We have a five-day week, you know. We get every Friday and Monday off, regardless of the postponements since they are made up at the end of the season. Most of the games are played at night, so I'm home all day. The games are all televised. The parks are very uniform in size and shape. The fans love us. The people everywhere are wonderful. And the sports writers bring us presents."

Leaf Star Big Hit

Shack Packs Arena As Nisei Stars Beat Italians 5-3 in Charity Game

TORONTO.—The Nisei Hockey League All-stars were successful on two fronts last Tuesday night at George Bell Arena. Not only did they assist the Canadian-Italian Hockey League stage a overwhelmingly successful benefit night for the Ontario Hospital Association of Volunteers, but they also came out on top of a 5-3 score.

An estimated crowd of 2,000 fans jammed the west end arena, and another 500 were turned away at the gate, to see the game with rampageous Toronto Maple Leaf star Eddie Shack in the feature role of referee.

CIHL president Louis Janetta presented Mrs. Bruce MacKinnon, vice-president of the Volunteers with a cheque for $1,201.50 in a pre-game ceremony.

The Nisei all-stars opened the scoring in the first period as the crowd roared approval at the fast pace set by the two teams. Satch Fujimoto, who along with netminder Ted Mianishi was the star of the game, scored the first of his two goals with the help of John Kitamura. He then made the score 2-0 early in the second frame aided this time by Gen Hamada.

Ted Kakino raised the count to 3-0 with a goal in the opening minutes of the final frame on a three way passing play with Dave Mitobe and Rick Yoshida. Then the Italian leaguers came to life.

Ronnie Magnacca fired two and Pat Romaldi one, while John Kitamura tallied for the Nisei, to make the score 4-3 with less than four minutes left to play in the game. With the Italians pressing for the equalizer, Gen Hamada broke away and fired a rink-wide pass to Tak Tanaka. The Mickey Sato captain (in the Nisei Hockey League) made no mistake as he fired the clincher into the Italian net.

It was a hard hitting contest right from the opening whistle, as the heavier Italian stars, especially Chuck Davidson (Italian???) let loose with some bone-crushing checks. However, the Japanese All-stars using their speed to good advantage carried the play for most of the game.

A girl's game between the Toronto Maplettes and the Northwestern Hospital Nurses prior to the feature contest, provided many laughs as disc jockeys Al Boliska and Mike Darrow of radio station CHUM, kibitzed with referee Eddie Shack. The Leaf star was also the target of many autograph-seeking youngsters, and he patiently signed as many as he could before the game and during the intermissions.

Mickey Sato Beat Yamada 2-1 To Move Into First Place; Satch Fujimoto Takes Over Scoring Lead

TORONTO. — Top and bottom places in the Nisei Hockey League standings changed hands as a result of last Sunday's games at George Bell Arena.

MAIN AUTO BODY
vs STADIUM GARAGE

A last second goal by Pee Wee Furukawa earned Main Auto a 1-1 tie with Stadium Garage in the opening game of last week's triple header.

After a scoreless first stanza, Stadium went out in front 1-0 in the middle frame as Hideo Higashi found the target on a pass from Glen Katsuyama and Chuck Saito.

Then, in the dying seconds of the contest, with Stadium attempting to make a player change, Furukawa banked a shot off the cross-bar into the net for the equalizer. The buzzer sounded as the Main players rushed to congratulate Furukawa.

The tie was a costly one for Stadium in that it dropped them into the league cellar, whereas, a win would have moved them into a tie for the last play-off berth.

DUFFERIN CLEANERS
vs JAPAN CAMERA CENTRE

Dufferin Cleaners finally moved out of the Nisei Hockey League cellar, a position they have kept since the start of the season, with a 5-2 trouncing of Japan Camera Centre. The Camerashop are now winless in their last four starts having tied one game and losing three.

Fred Yamashita paced the Cleaners with a two-goal performance, white George Shimono, Al Masukawa and Gerry Oye fired the other goals. Nobby Fujino assisted on both of Yamashita's markers.

Benny Murata and Ray Hinatsu tallied for the losers.

MICKEY SATO
vs YAMADA STUDIO

After several weeks of challenging Yamada Studio for the league leadership, Mickey Sato took a 2-1 decision as the two teams met head-on in the 6 p.m. finale of last Sunday's trio of games.

Yamada not only lost the league lead, but ace defenseman Ted Kakino also toppled from the scoring leadership as he gave way to Sato's ace rearguard, Satch Fujimoto. Fujimoto picked up two assists to go one point ahead of Kakino in the race for the scoring crown.

George Anzai opened the scoring in the first frame as he rapped home Fujimoto's rebound for a 1-0 lead. Ken Kanda duplicated Anzai's feat for the Photographers as he knocked in the rebound from a long shot by John Kitamura.

Then Sam Tanaka, with help from brother Tak and Fujimoto, tallied the winner which lifted the Insurancemen into first place.

Japanese Film Industry Faces TV Competition

TOKYO.—The Japanese motion picture industry is facing keen competition from the television industry but manages to maintain its financial position by raising admission fees. The industry knows that the only way for survival is to produce quality films.

The Japanese motion picture industry embraces 115,000 workers, earns about $202,000,000 annually, and exports nearly $3,300,000 worth of movies.

The postwar production peak of films was established in 1960, amounting to 547 on the release basis. In 1961, the production figure dropped to 535, and in 1962, it was likely to have decreased further to approximately 372. A notable trend is toward the production of quality pictures. At present 18 companies are engaged in the production of feature films, five of which accounted for nearly 75 per cent of the total production in 1961. Last year the number of films longer than 4,000 meters (more than 2.5 hours running time) increased conspicuously.

Color Films Increase

Color films numbered 251 in 1961, or 47 per cent of total production. The percentage rose to 53 per cent in the first six months of 1962. Most of the films are "wide screen" types, and one 70 mm film was made in 1961, and two in 1962.

It is hoped, however, that the industry will push the production of quality films more vigorously and that foreign exchange restriction will be lifted so as to enable the industry to make more motion pictures in collaboration with its foreign counterparts, shoot on overseas locations and use foreign talents.

There are five major distribution channels for domestic films which are dominated by five major motion picture companies. In fact, these companies account for 96 per cent of the total distribution. As to imported films, nine foreign and nine Japanese distributing companies are handling foreign motion pictures which number 230 to 250 annually.

In face of the big challenge from television in particular, distribution revenue hit the ceiling around 1959 at $108 million. As far as Japanese films are concerned, their distribution revenue increased gradually until 1960 but began to turn downwards in the meantime, the distribution ratio of Japanese films to foreign pictures was 74 to 26 in 1961.

Declining Attendance

In 1958 attendance set a postwar record of 1,127 million and the number of attendances averaged 12.3 per capita. But these figures began to decline around 1959 and dropped to 868 million in that year and 9.2 million in 1960.

The number of movie houses was the highest in postwar years in 1960 (7,457) but decreased to 6,636 this year. During 1961-62, these movie houses were liquidated at a daily rate of 1.6 houses.

Admission fees now tend upwards. In 1957, it was 62.02 yen—about 17 cents—(excluding tax) on the average but rose to 84.55 yen in 1961 and 108.25 yen in 1962. When compared with those in major movie-producing countries, the 1961 average admission fee in Japan about 24 cents, is much lower than $1.50 (the equivalents of the respective currencies) in the United States, 35 cents in Britain, 38 cents in France and in Italy .26.

Box-office revenue totalled $189 million (including tax) in 1957, $202 million in 1960, and $203 million in 1961. In 1961, the released motion pictures, both Japanese and foreign, numbered 764. The percentage of foreign films finally topped 34 per cent of the total in the January-June period of 1962 (105 films). Country-wise, American films topped the list with 129 (60 per cent) in 1961, followed by Italian products with 33, French with 27 and British with 18.

In recent years, triple features are increasing as a result of keen competition, but this lowers the rate of attendance turnover, eventually aggravating the financial position of movie theatres.

Educational and documentary films are being produced in increasing quantities for school education, social education, industrial education, public relations for companies, or television. Their production reached 1,100 in 1961. The production of motion pictures exclusively for television is also on the increase, amounting to 1,074 while domestic newsreels produced numbered 370 in 1961.

Exports On Increase

In 1947 when the nation's export trade resumed, exports of motion pictures also revived, but export markets were limited to Hawaii, Brazil and California where citizens of Japanese ancestry live, and markets formerly under Japanese influence such as the Ryukyus and Formosa. The export value of 1947 was a mere $32,000.

The "Rashimon" which won the Grand Prix at the Venice film festival in August 1951 drew world attention to the Japanese motion picture industry and at the same time encouraged the industry to produce quality pictures for international consuption. In 1951, exports of motion pictures soared to $504,000 and further to $830,000 in 1952 and $1,200,000 in 1953.

In 1961, Japanese movies were exported to as many as 51 countries. However, stable export markets account for about half of them.

Until 1952 motion picture exports had been on the basis of the flat fee system, but in 1960 the ratio of the films exported under the percentage system increased to 21 per cent. The latter export system is of course preferred.

The Government encourages motion picture exports because their net foreign exchange earning rate is fairly high. In fact, the rate (export value—film import cost) export value is 88.7 per cent as against 76.1 per cent for metal products and 70.8 per cent for cotton textile. On a long-term basis, it will not be possible to boost exports of motion pictures to $10 million—by around 1968.

More positive governmental assistance in motion picture exports is strongly desired and establishment of a body to specialize in market research for movie exports is needed.

Imports Under Control

Presently imports of motion picture are subject to the approval of the Finance Minister under the Foreign Exchange Control Law, but preparations are making steady progress for freer remittance of earnings. If and when Japan removes controls over foreign exchange, excessive competition may take place temporarily among film importers. Japanese importers may be driven out of the market since major foreign distributors are likely to move positively to handle European pictures also, and new, powerful distributors with international financial backing may appear.

The Japanese motion picture industry calls for the Government's protective measures, including the so-called "screen quota" system under which the percentage of foreign films screened will be limited to a certain level. This system is consistent with GATT provisions and even the Japan-U.S. treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation and the Anglo-Japanese treaty of commerce, establishment and navigation. Great Britain, France and Italy are adopting this system.
